Remembering Sahib Kanshi Ram:

Today, we mark the anniversary of the passing of Sahib Kanshi Ram (15 March 1934 – 9 October 2006), a name synonymous with the struggle for the rights and dignity of the marginalized and oppressed in our society. His unwavering commitment to the cause of Bahujans, the downtrodden, and his tireless efforts to uplift them remain etched in our hearts.

A Life of Dedication:

Sahib Kanshi Ram, fondly referred to as Bahujan Nayak, embarked on a remarkable journey that saw the founding of the Dalit Shoshit Samaj Sangharsh Samiti (DS-4) in 1981, the All India Backwards (SC/ST/OBC), and Minorities Communities Employees' Federation (BAMCEF) in 1978. In 1984, he gave birth to the Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP), an institution that not only symbolized his vision but also became a beacon of hope for millions. His transformative leadership not only paved the way for the political empowerment of those who had been marginalized for far too long but also left an indelible mark on the pages of history,
